Criterion 7.2.1 Best Practices

Year 2022-2023

Best Practice – 1

Title: “Prakashnam - Light of knowledge”

Objectives:

1. To develop a research culture among staff and students.
2. To inculcate the habit of writing among students and staff

Context:

Since many students are first generation learners, it becomes mandatory to inculcate writing habits in students.

Practice:

Initially it started in the name of “Biz news” for B.Com students, “Fashion Buzz” for B.Sc FAD Students and “Techno News” for BCA Students

Problems encountered/resources required:

Problems encountered in rectification of grammatical errors, motivating the students to write articles.

Evidence of success: Publication of Wall magazine, Notice board magazine, e-newsletter, annual magazine, souvenir, ISBN books and various hand books to stake holders.

Bes Practice – 2

“Help Us To Help Others – Student’s Financial Aid”

Objectives:

1. To support the students in paying admission and examination fees or any expenses during their examination

Context: It caters to financially and economically weaker sections of the society and ensures affordability of education to all.

Practice: Initially the contributors were one or two – either the Principal or few interested faculty members.

Problems encountered/resources required:

Fixing of amount to be distributed to individual students is a challenge

Evidence of success:

During 22-23, 52 students amounting ₹. 36,000/- were supported towards the examination fees.
